

FORMERLY of Colnaghi, Edmondo di Robilant established his Dover Street Gallery in 1989, and has been dealing in Old Master and 19th century paintings, specialising in the Italian and French schools for over 20 years.

Meanwhile Marco Voena, based at his

Milan premises for over ten years, deals in fine art ranging from Old Masters to contemporary.

Having gone into partnership ten years ago, in January 2005 they joined forces to open a London gallery, Robilant + Voena, at 38 Dover Street.
