

Where to be: Untangling Frieze and other events this week (October 1-7)

The first week of October brings London's spectacular duo of art fairs, Frieze London and Frieze Masters. But for buyers who do not spend at the high end of these fairs, the seven days around these events offer plenty of opportunities to find art and antiques of many levels around the capital.

- Frances Allitt
- 01 Oct 2018

Robilant + Voena (Mayfair)

Pietro Consagra, Piano appeso Alluminio celeste, 1966-67, painted aluminium, available at Robilant + Voena this month.

Robilant + Voena hold the first solo exhibition of the Italian sculptor Pietro Consagra this month, highlighting works he produced from 1947-67. He is considered one of the pioneers of international modern sculpture who brought the world 'scultura frontale'. Works in the show range from £50,000-250,000.

Details: Until November 16, Robilant + Voena, W1S 4NL

Read the original article here: <https://www.antiquestradegazette.com/news/2018/where-to-be-untangling-frieze-and-other-events-this-week-october-1-7/>